Callate nina (Grandes Novelas) (Spanish Edition) By Rodolfo Naro

Callate nina es una cronica de amor a partir del rompimiento: drogas y sexo. Rodolfo Naro nos cuenta de manera delirante como el amor destruye, y el odio une a los que se aman. La muerte repentina del padre de la protagonista, al que nunca conocio, la obliga a contar su historia, desde su infancia a lado de su madre drogadicta y cristiana, el apasionante mundo del ballet, y sus amantes, a quienes -como la Carmen de Bizet- utiliza y desdena como una triste forma de sobrevivir, hasta su encuentro con Antonio, hijo de un militar torturador de la Guerra Sucia en Mexico. La novela tiene como telon de fondo La Habana en pleno Periodo Especial, la ciudad de Napoles asediada por la Camorra y, sobre todo, la ciudad de Mexico retratada por personajes que viven en el abismo. Un relato en el que estan escondidas la culpa y la venganza, el miedo a vivir y el deseo llevado hasta los limites de la realidad y la pasion. / This is a chronicle of love, drugs and sex. The sudden death of her father forces to tell her story, from childhood beside her drug-addicted mother and Christian, to her meeting with Antonio, the son of a military torturer of the Dirty War in Mexico. The novel has as background the city of Mexico portrayed by characters that live in the abyss of guilt and revenge.
