Trusting God: A Girlfriends in God Faith Adventure By Sharon Jaynes, Gwen Smith, Mary Southerland

You don't have to understand God to trust him.

“Just trust me.” Those are the words we often hear in movies just before something bad happens. And yet, we are told to trust God. In a culture where we tend to take control of our own lives, trusting God has become a religious platitude rather than a life-changing attitude. We say it, but do we really mean it? And what does trusting God really look like?

Sharon, Mary, and Gwen—the Girlfriends in God ministry team—have been there. They’ve traveled the tough roads of life to discover the peace and power that comes from grabbing the hand of God and trusting his plan. The life stories they share bring laughter and sometimes tears, but always spiritual growth.

Each of the 12-week sections concludes with a Bible study guide and journal page, inviting you to lock arms with Sharon, Mary, and Gwen and share with other women in a small group setting or to use individually in your own quiet time.

From the Author

I am so excited about this book ... for so many reasons. I love doing ministry and life with Sharon Jaynes and Gwen Smith. We truly are friends. Our hearts beat as one to connect with women and help them navigate the often chaotic waters of daily life. We don't have all of the answers...but we are on the same journey in learning to trust God.

Trusting God is a great resource for establishing a meaningful daily quiet time but it is also a great tool for small group leaders who have never led a group and even for those who are veteran Bible study teachers.

God bless you as you step out in faith - He is waiting for you, girlfriend.
