Treatment Companion to the Dsm-IV-TR Casebook By Robert L. Spitzer, Miriam Gibbon, Michael B. First

It is easy to understand the enduring popularity of the DSM Casebooks. They bring DSM diagnostic criteria to life using real-world cases, they familiarize practitioners with different types of patients they would otherwise not encounter in their work or studies, and they help teach the principles of differential diagnosis. Beginning with the DSM-III Casebook in 1981, they have consistently proven second in popularity only to the DSM itself. Yet the DSM Casebooks focus almost exclusively on diagnosis and not on treatment issues. This practical companion volume to the DSM-IV-TR Casebook takes us a step further. Here, for the first time, case studies include not only diagnosis, but also in-depth discussions by world-renowned experts of state-of-the-art approaches to treatment. Taken from the best-selling DSM-IV-TR Casebook, these 34 fascinating case studies cover a wide variety of psychiatric disorders: alcohol dependence, Alzheimer's disease, bipolar disorder, major depressive disorder, obsessive-compulsive disorder, pedophilia, schizophrenia, somatization disorder, and many others. This volume -Includes a discussion of both the psychiatric diagnosis and treatment approaches with each case description. -Brings together a world-class group of experts who provide their personal perspectives on how they would manage treatment for the specific patient and the general principles of treating that disorder. -Highlights the fact that there are multiple approaches to treating the same disorder by including experts with widely differing treatment orientations to provide contrasting perspectives in several of the cases. Designed for easy reading, this volume presents cases alphabetically by diagnosis, each followed by detailed references, and concludes with four indexes that list cases by name, discussant, diagnosis, and subject. This meticulously detailed volume of dynamic real-life case studies is simply a must read for all mental health care professionals interested in expert opinion on today's treatment approaches. Psychiatric students, educators, and practitioners as well as social workers, nurses, medical physicians, and interested laypersons will find this unique volume of inestimable value in their day-to-day work.

Joan Stump:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Treatment Companion to the Dsm-IV-TR Casebook can make you sense more interested to read.
