Jockey Kelly Hughes and trainer Dexter Cranfield had been barred from racing--for throwing a race for personal profit. It was a vicious frame-up and, worse, they had nowhere to turn to clear their names. Still, Hughes refused to take the phony verdict lying down--even though his personal enquiry might have him lying down permanently....

From the Back Cover

Jockey Kelly Hughes and trainer Dexter Cranfield had been barred from racing -- a devastating event for them both. The charge at the secret enquiry? Throwing a race for personal profit. It was a vicious frame-up and, worse, they had nowhere to turn to clear their names. Still Hughes refused to take the phony verdict lying down -- even though his personal enquiry might have him lying down permanently....

Says The New York Times Book Review, Enquiry contains "everything required in a modern thriller...an intricate plot that unravels skillfully, mayhem, sex, suspense, excitement, and surprise denouements".
