More Bad News From Israel By Greg Philo, Mike Berry

Building on rigorous research by the world-renowned Glasgow University Media Group, More Bad News From Israel examines media coverage of the current conflict in the Middle East and the impact it has on public opinion.

The book brings together senior journalists and ordinary viewers to examine how audiences understand the news and how their views are shaped by media reporting. In the largest study ever undertaken in this area, the authors focus on television news. They illustrate major differences in the way Israelis and Palestinians are represented, including how casualties are shown and the presentation of the motives and rationales of both sides. They combine this with extensive audience research involving hundreds of participants from the USA, Britain and Germany. It shows extraordinary differences in levels of knowledge and understanding, especially amongst young people from these countries.

Covering recent developments, including the Israeli attacks on Lebanon and Gaza, this authoritative and up-to-date study will be an invaluable tool for journalists, activists and students and researchers of media studies.

Editorial Review

Review

"This superb study ... is extensive in scope, and scrupulously fair. It will be a landmark." --Edward S. Herman, co-author (with Noam Chomsky) of Manufacturing Consent

"[The book covers a lot of ground in a clear and readable manner and is particularly good at airing different views about the Arab-Israeli conflict." --Professor Avi Shlaim, St Antony's College, University of Oxford

"Coverage of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict is often dangerously superficial. Bad News from Israel is a strong contribution to scholarship and public debate." --John D.H. Downing, Director, Global Media Research Center, Southern Illinois University

"Just about everything that we know about Israel/Palestine comes to us from our television screens. Bad News from Israel reveals remarkable levels of ignorance about what and why things are as they are. What's more, the analysis offered here strongly suggests that the media are intimately linked to the perpetuation of this unhappy situation." --Professor Frank Webster, City University, London

"A remarkable book." --Professor Lucrecia Escudero Chauvel, Université de Lille III and Paris VIII
