Editorial Review

Review

As doctors, massage therapists and aesthetician relationships continue to develop in the medical industry, the importance of continuing education is an absolute necessity and there are very few books in the industry that fill this gap. Morag Currin has done a better than outstanding job of combining knowledge of how to care for cancer patients beyond medical procedures. As care for cancer patients continues to be a growing industry, Oncology Esthetics defines every step of cancer treatments from the differing surgeries to an entire chapter on oncology drugs administered and how health professionals, massage therapists and aestheticians can give treatments to comfort a patient while being cognizant of any reactions that may occur. Every chapter offers well researched knowledge that can benefit both cancer patients and clients that may be visiting a spa as well. She also discusses in depth the pros and cons of many of today's promoted beauty procedures and how they will actually effect the skin. To often in the professional beauty industry, products are used on men and women without proper study of the effects that may occur when not used properly. Currin uses her South African background where beauty therapies require intense training along with several advanced degrees and certifications she has received to put together a book that is an absolute must to any professional wanting to deal with cancer patients in a manner that is both professional and ethical. --Wendy Fitos, Licensed Esthetician (Ohio and Pennsylvania), volunteer with cancer patients through the Look Good Feel Better Program

Oncology Esthetics: A Practitioner's Guide by Morag Currin is a fantastic resource, and an indispensable tool for anyone who would like to expand their knowledge of cancer with regard to skin care and stature in the medical esthetic Industry. This book targets topics that have never been covered before. Written by one of the industry's leading experts in skin care, you can consider each chapter practical, clear and concise, and value it as an extremely comprehensive and educational book that will give any reader a wealth of knowledge. --Lori Johnson Licensed Esthetician and Professional Postgraduate Skin Care Trainer, Phoenix, Arizona

About the Author

Herman Jenkins:

As a college student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Oncology Esthetics: A Practitioner's Guide Revised & Expanded can make you feel more interested to read.
