During these trying days, saints are not only needed, they are necessary. In this little book, the great Archbishop Sheen explores the spirituality of the Little Flower, giving us lessons and guidance for our own journey to Heaven. There is only one Fulton Sheen and here he is at his best: teeming with spiritual insight, filled with drama, and oh so practical. It s like going on a retreat with the master himself a retreat I heartily recommend. --Raymond Arroyo, author of the New York Times bestseller Mother Angelica

These sermons by Bishop Sheen represent a life long study of the spirituality of St. Therese and are among the most inspiring of his works. There are many new insights into the much studied life of the saint but also into the spiritual life of this apostle of the media. The reader will be profoundly rewarded. --Fr. Benedict Groeschel, CFR
